

Substation BESC/Person Training

Course Overview

This 1 day course is designed to provide delegates with the basic knowledge to be safe in a substation under National Grid UK Electricity Transmission 3rd Edition Safety Rules. Delivery is through classroom based theory and a visit to a training substation.

Who is it for?

Delegates wishing to gain the knowledge required to take the BESC and Person assessments.

Content

- General Review of Safety Rules and Procedures
- Description of Substation Equipment
- Arrival and Entry into Substation
- Starting Work in the Substation
- Management of Risk in Substations
- Vehicles and Excavation in Substations
- Completion of Work and Leaving Substation

Learning Objectives

- Understand the principles of safe working in substations
- Understand the responsibilities of a Person
- Demonstrate your understanding in a written assessment
- Understand the requirements of BESC (Substations) in preparation for an assessment

Course Length: 1 day